Helb Neal Manne,

We want to start this letter off by honoring your Firm for helping to administer the plan to help indigent inmates here in Harris County Jail. We acknowledge the valid points made in the article on Thursday, January 21, 2021. We want to know how we can help from here inside, as indigent inmates. We want to help abolish the injustice done to indigent inmates. It is very inhuman the we are cramed in this jail, and not allowed to practice social distances. The courts set our bails high and our court dates 3 to 6 month apart. They are very aware that these bails are outrageous, and impossible for our families to post due to the strain Covid-19 has on our economy. To many families are stagnant and destitute because of both matters at hand. But Covid-19 is a very serious topic to us as inmates because living conditions are harsh. They don't provide enough soap for 26 people. They don't provide sanitizer plus the tables we eat off are rusted and we don't have cameras to prevent inmate on inmate violence. We feel that you are our only hope for lowering bails and getting us home to our families.

We want to say thanks for your time,
and your commitment.

Sincerely
